Handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring ten staves of music. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, sixteenth notes), rests, and dynamic markings such as p (piano) and f (forte). The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/4. The lyrics are written in German, with the first line reading "Ich bis die dreyförmig" and the second line "in form". The manuscript shows signs of age, including foxing and wear along the edges.

Handwritten musical score on ten staves, featuring complex notation with many accidentals (sharps, naturals) and fingerings. The score includes dynamic markings such as pp. (pianissimo) and forte. A section is marked Stano. (Stano). The notation is dense and characteristic of 18th or 19th-century manuscript notation.

Violino. 1.

This image shows a page of handwritten musical notation for Franz Liszt's 'L'Espresso'. The score is written on ten staves, with the first two staves containing a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The music is characterized by dense, rapid passages, often using triplets and slurs. Dynamic markings such as 'p' (piano) and 'pp' (pianissimo) are visible. The piece concludes with a 'Recitativo' section, indicated by a double bar line and the word 'Recitativo' written in a large, stylized script. The handwriting is fluid and expressive, typical of Liszt's manuscript style.
